BRITANNIC'S SON TAKES THE MANHANKET STAKES. The Black Man Away from His Competi-tors-Margrave Takes the Preakness and Paludin the Patchogue Stakes,

The programme for Gravesend yesterday was sufficiently attractive to bring out 6,000 persons. Three stake races were decided, the Manhanset, for two-year-olds at four and s half furiongs, won by that good colt Lithos; the Patchogue, for thee-year-olds and upward at one mile and a sixteenth, won by Paladin, and the Preakness, for three-year-olds, won by the Blemton Stable's Margrave, Thetrack was very fast, and the racing was spirited and interesting throughout. The scratches from the original entries for the Manhauset Stakes reduced the field to five contestants. For some reason best known to themselves, the talent selected St. Bartholomes to win, neglecting Lithos, winner of the Expectation Stakes on the opening day, and Arbuckle, a winner at Morris Park. McCafferty figured for the advantage at the start, and finally secured it. He straightway began whipping in order to increase the gap, but Hart got Lithos into his stride quickly, and it was a treat to see the black colt run. He passed Arbuckle as though he were tied, and those who rememhered Britannic's speed could not help remarking how much like the sire the son was. Both have that long, low, swaying action for which Britannic was famous. Lithos speedily had the others beaten, and Hart never let go bis hold of the colt's head until the finish was reached. Arbuckle and Salvado had a hammer-and-tongs finish for second money, the former gaining the verdict by a head. St. Bartholomew was fourth, two lengths away. This colt Lithos looks like a good colt, and his action s so perfect that he should stay pretty well. He has now won the Expectation and Manhanset stakes, and he was certainly a very cheap colt for Trowbridge & Co. at $5,000.

race, Gotham, Buckrene, Hanwell, and Paladin selling so closely together that there wasn't much to choose between them in point of price. otham was the actual post favorite at 2 to 1. Gotham was the actual post favorite at 2 to 1. Hanwell and Sherlock made the running head and head to the head of the homstretch, where Sherlock was beaten and Hanwell came on. Hewitt on Buckrene was dodging about in a pocket next the rail, and while he was figuring to get through loggett swept up on the outside with Paladin, who had been trailing, and cutting loose in the last sixteenth of a mile, won a good race by a length. Buckrene was closing the gap fast, but the distance was too short and second was the best position he could secure. Gotham was third, a length away. Like Lithos, Paladin is a cast-off of the Morris Stable, and is now owned by Fred Lohmann, who is said to have paid $2,000 for the son of Hawkstone. As the race was worth $1,500 Paladin is now a very cheap horse.

Margrave was not forgotten by the public in the Preakness Stakes, and the big colt by St. Blaise, out of Lady Margravet, was an even money chance. Hamilton II., with a pull in the weights, was second choice, with Intermission, purchased by John E. McDonald early in the day, next in favor. Margrave made the running under a puil until half a mile from home, when Doggett ru-hed up with Hamilton II. and tried to catch Griffin napping. The chestnut colt had a big lot of speed on tap and Doggett soon realized that he had caught a tertar. Margrave not only held his own, but when the stretch was reached drew away and won like a good colt. Hamilton II, had to be ridden vigorously to beat Intermission for second money. The only other starter, Cassette, was beaten several lengths.

It would not be surprising to find Margrave one of the fusitest three-year-olds out this year. He is a typical St. Blaise in appearance and action.

Buckwa was favorite for the opening race, a dash of six furlongs, but quite a lot of money Hanwell and Sherlock made the running head one of the fastest three-year-olds out this year. He is a typical St. Blaise in appearance and action.

Buckwa was favorite for the opening race, a dash of six furlongs, but quite a lot of money went in on Sir Francis, Lustre, and Irish Reel. The horses broke from the starting gate at the second attempt well bunched, with the exception of Harmony II., ridden by the novice, Redmond. Lustre flew to the front, going the first half mile in $8 seconds, with Sir Francis, Lady Greenway, Buckwa, and Irish Reel in hot pursuit. Sir Francis headed Lustre in the last furlong, and looked all over a winner. Keefe, however, had savest alot of ground in the turn, and hugging the rait all the way home caught Sir Francis in the final strides and won a good race by half a length. Buckwa beat the fast-tiring Lustre a head for third money. Paladin, by Ton Brocek, the Brooklyn Handicap candidate, was a conspicuous performer in the rush.

Borlan, Lake Shore, Patrician, Ray S., and Aurelian were heavily backed for the second event at one mile and a sixteenth, the former going to the post a very slight favorite over those named above. Volley cut out the ruming, followed by Aurelian, Lake Shore, and Patrician. In the stretch Doggett took Patrician to the outside and coming away in the last furloug won eleverly by a couple of lengths. Dorlan came strong at the finish and beat Lake Shore for second money. Anybody who saw Patrician race on the opening day with Lehman should have seen him yesterday. The start, a good one, was made by the aid of the Dill machine is the same in principle as the Brown machine.

Fifteen two-year-olds made a delay of twenty-five minutes at the post in the last race in which the Dill machine was used, the bunch finally getting away in only fair order. The fast, and they had the race to themselves, the cold winning disverly. Azure, a bad notor, ran third, and might have won had he been as well place!

THE ATLANTICS' LADIES' DAY.

The Atlantic Yacht Club's beinuful Bay Ridge club house was thronged by the wives and daughters of the members yesterday on the occasion of the club's ladies'day regatta. In addition to the regular special class prizes the first heat for the Adams Curs presented by Vice-Commodore F. T. Adams of the schoone Sachem, open to sloops and cats, was also sailed, while each and every woman who sailed on a winning yacht received a gold pin showing the

Not satisfied with this, the Atlantic boys, who are nothing if not gallant, provided a supper for their fair guests, which was followed by a concert and dancing. The races were open to classes 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10, of sloops and classes 1, 2, and 3 of cats. In addition, the sloops and cats were each rated in one class for the cups offered by Vice-Commodore Adams, and received time allowance on their actual saling length.

Fourteen vachts started and made a rattling good race over the course. The sloops were Choctaw, Pengnin, Tigress, Sultan, Wabossa, Feydeh, Lynx, Waws, Step, Lively, Squaw, Streak, Presto, and Ethel. #### Sportsman's Goods. Sportsman's Goods. *VICTORS--ONE! TWO!!

Thus they came to the finish at the big coasting contest of the N. Y. Athletic Club. FORTY-SEVEN starters, THREE of them on Victors, TWO of these taking ALL the honors. This means something, for mark you coasting is a far better criterion of the qualities of a bicycle than racing. When the machine is free to simply roll down hill, precision in lines and make has a chance to talk, and the result of this match speaks whole libraries for the character of VICTOR BICYCLES.

See us about all this. It is worth your while.

We are always looking for new things of merit-not waiting, but hunting-as we are bent upon two things: first, that the Majestic for '96 will be a little ahead of everything, and second, that the Majestic for '97 and '98, and for all time, will always be a little ahead and a little better than anything for the same money. On instalments, $20 down and $10 monthly, or $15 down and $2.50 weekly.

RATTAN Well-woren rattan first, as a base for strength, because each strand is twice as strong as an equal strand of rawhile, also because it is not affected by dampness, and wood fiber cannot stretch, and, besides, it gives ventilation; then a layer of feit to soften, then leather to waterproof, and a V-shaped opening through both felt and leather to relieve all injurious pressure.

29 BROADWAY, N. Y. NO "FLIM FLAM" GAME

To be Worked on Early Purchasers of

After the adoption of our 1896 model and a careful estimate of the cost to manufacture, we placed the price on the Spalding Bicycle at $100. The price is now $100 and will continue at $100 throughout the season, no matter what other manufacturers may do. We don't believe it is fair, honest or good business policy to sell a standard article like the Spalding Bicycle at one price in May and reduce its value in June by a material reduction in price. As a matter of common fairness to early purchasers of Spalding Bicycles and as an evidence of good faith on our part we will, in case of reduction in price during the season, send a rebate check to every purchaser of a Spalding Bievele of the amount of any such reduction that may be made by us during the season. This is our meaning of a GUARANTEE OF PRICE.

Ride the Spalding and you will be happy, contented and assured that you will not be "flim-flammed" in price or quality.
